Mexico City, November 24, 2025.- Von Wobeser y Sierra, S.C., a leading full-service Mexican law firm, has completed its transition to new offices in Mexico City. Strategically located in the vibrant Campos Elíseos area in Polanco—just steps away from the iconic Paseo de la Reforma—the new premises are situated at the heart of one of Mexico's most dynamic business districts and among the most important in Latin America.

This relocation brings to life the firm's philosophy: "We go where clients need us." The design—combining panoramic views with the highest architectural and technological standards—was conceived to maximize collaboration among the firm's 18 legal practice areas and 7 industry groups, together with administrative support teams, and to provide clients with top-tier infrastructure.

Founded in 1986, Von Wobeser y Sierra, S.C., has established itself as one of the most prominent full-service law firms in Mexico. Since its inception, it has remained true to its values of integrity and excellence, and to its commitment to delivering legal counsel of the highest quality in the most complex and challenging matters for companies operating or investing in Mexico. This relocation is a tangible expression of its long-term vision and adaptability in a dynamic market.

A space for clients and colleagues

Fernando Carreño, partner of the firm and member of the Executive Committee, stated: "The relocation of our offices responds to two inseparable objectives: first, to be closer to our clients, in one of the most important business centers of the continent, to provide them with the agile and personalized service they require; and second, to offer our team—the firm's greatest asset—a workspace designed to foster collaboration and productivity that translates into service excellence. This investment is a vote of confidence in the future of Von Wobeser y Sierra."

The new offices embody a commitment to sustainability and innovation, serving the comfort and productivity of the team, while blending tradition and modernity to reflect the institutional consolidation of the firm founded nearly 40 years ago by Claus von Wobeser, Maclovio Sierra, and Javier Lizardi, and which today includes 22 partners and more than 160 members of the legal team.

In its initial phase, the facilities accommodate more than 300 workstations, 16 meeting rooms, flexible spaces for social and academic activities with a capacity for 250 people, and a panoramic terrace with privileged views of Mexico City landmarks such as Chapultepec Park and Campo Militar Marte.

The architectural and interior design was led by Gensler, one of the world's most influential architecture and design firms, recognized for its expertise in developing innovative and sustainable solutions and for having designed the offices of major firms in the world's leading business capitals. The tower is part of a premier real estate development conceived by SOMA, a Mexican developer with an outstanding track record in creating mixed-use, commercial, and residential destinations that transform the urban landscape.

Von Wobeser y Sierra, S.C.'s new address is: Torre SOMA Chapultepec, 18th Floor. Campos Elíseos 204, Polanco, 11560, Mexico City.
